ON CAMPUS COUNSELLING

Lady Teacher counselling girl student

Counselling is a process of talk therapy. It is a process where an individual or family meets with a trained professional to talk about issues and problems that they are facing in their lives with an intention of resolving them. It is confidential and non-judgemental.

Trained counsellors at Anjuman – I – Islam's CHTMSR counsellor is aware about specific set of challenges and issues faced by the student's especially female students and then offer rational, neutral, gender unbiased, women supportive solutions. This is important in education.

Girl's students as well as male students are provided counselling by dedicated Women faculties. Therefore, The Women faculties work as counsellor to understand the problems of mentally -socially deprived girls students.

Anjuman – I – Islam's CHTMSR encourages Gender Equity through Co-convention via many on campus events, celebrations, drives, library centric initiatives, annual grand event and more. At Anjuman – I – Islam's CHTMSR level playing platform is created for both genders. Special set of events are organized for female students alongside celebration of women centric days. This is reflected via huge participation of female students in leadership roles in events like Annual Sports events, cultural events, theme lunch events, celebrations of fests and festivals, community drives like blood donation drive, social cause awareness and more. Female students also participate in library centric initiatives like reading sessions, books ordering, ordering of magazines and more.

At Anjuman – I – Islam's CHTMSR places its female students in carefully chosen Hotel Properties for mandatory Industrial Training programme. Duration for which is specified by University. Many of our female students have also won accolades for their good performance during Industrial Training.

Magn is Annual signature fest of College which is a dedicated and renowned platform for students to display their talents. Magn has consistently seen active participation of female students in the range of events throughout.
